Date in (2020) = expiration date of term for Council of Aging Board Members

Call to Order: 9:30 a.m. December Minutes Approved

ROBERTA: Budget for 2021 submitted to Town will have 1 change. Elaine DeClemente will now work every other Saturday and Vicki Ferguson will work Elaine's Saturdays off. This will make a change to personnel line in budget.

Bingo and Zumba continue to be very popular at our Saturday program. Another activity may be added.

Discussion of garage for The Center buses will be held at Town Hall on Tuesday, January 21, during Selectmen's meeting at 7:30 pm.

The Club program has 53 (1/2 day) slots. Revenue for December 2019 was $4745. Revenue for calendar year 2019 was $68,652.50. Per Kathy, the program is maintaining a steady flow of clients.

Paint colors for the card room are displayed on the walls. Eagle project to paint room will begin later in January. Another Eagle project has been requested: suggestions include building permanent shelving in shed; or a pulley system to left items into attic.

Susan Dahl, tax work-off instructor for Tuesday Yoga class, is going in for surgery. Roberta will hire a substitute instructor during her absence for Tuesday class and Friday chair Yoga class.

Starting next Wednesday, there will be an open Art Club from 10 am to noon for younger women. Therefore, COA meetings will be held in the library during February and March.

On March 5, Art Classes will begin from 2-4 pm.

Bowling begins Thursday, January 9 at 1:00 pm at Ryan's in Millis.

Dance Recital today at 4:15 with hot chocolate and cookies. Sinatra program tomorrow.

PETER: ROMEO group will start up again in February. Trip to Twin Rivers scheduled for the 14th.

SUSAN: Sign-ups beginning February 5 for AARP Tax Aid Program on Wednesdays for low/moderate income people.

Motion to adjourn accepted at 10:30 a.m.

NEXT MEETING: Wednesday, February 5, 2020, at 10:00 a.m. in the LIBRARY.

Respectfully submitted,

Roberta Lynch
